What does this story tell us?

When the disciples were walking to Emmaus they were so sad about Jesus dying that they didn't notice that it was he who joined them on the walk. It was only when they invited him for a meal and he broke bread with them that they realised who he was and that he had risen from the dead as he said he would.

We too must always remember that God is always with us if we allow him to guide us and not be as blind as the disciples were. Even when we are fed up and grumpy, God is with us and able to help us get through days that seem difficult and unhappy. We just need to open our eyes and ask for his help.
