

TRINITY NEWS 16TH DECEMBER 2021

It was good to hear that Rev. Vaughan Tong took the Service last Sunday. The third Advent Candle was lit. The Candle of Love. Love is like a candle shining in a dark place. It is good to remember this.

You would have been sent an Advert for a cleaner at Trinity earlier in the week. If you do know of anyone please let Chris Spencer or David Wakeford know.

The FORUM has been dormant for the past few months but plans are now being made to bring it back into circulation with a publication date of February 1st. Russell Cook is now taking on the role of editing the magazine and anyone who wishes to submit stories can send them to him via email russellcook@sky.com or post them to Trinity Methodist Church, Brentgovel Street, Bury St. Edmunds, IP33 1EB . The deadline for copy is Saturday, January 29th.

This is the last Trinity News until middle of January 2022. I wish you all a Happy Christmas and Good Health in the Year 2022. Thank you everyone for keeping our Church going.

Now here round the baby the world is invited
The strongest and weakest, they all are united.
From wise men to shepherds, from angels to sheep.
From Shiniest heights to the scariest deep.
So come to the manger, see God become small.
The true Christmas story has room for us all.

Blessings to All.
From Linda.
Senior Steward.
