

Trinity Newsletter: 28th February to 3rd March 2024

On this Sunday 3rd March at 10a.m. - 3rd Sunday in Lent - our worship will be led by Local Preacher, Mr. Matthew Stammers. 10th March is Mothering Sunday when our worship will be led by our Minister the Rev. Canon Jason Vinyard. This day also marks Trinity's annual Gift Day; the giving for this will extend throughout the month of March and offerings for the Gift Day appeal should be placed in the specially marked envelope.

Meanwhile other things are happening before March 10th: The services for the WORLD DAY OF PRAYER (formerly Womens World Day of Prayer) will be held on March 1st. Please join us at one of the local services on that day at 10.30 at Garland Street Baptist Church or 7.30p.m. at Quaker Meeting House. The service is particularly poignant as it has been prepared (long before 7th October 2023) by women of the Christian church in Palestine.

Also expressing our concern for world justice is A FAIRTRADE COFFEE MORNING being run by the Bury St.Edmunds Fairtrade Partnership to be held at Trinity on Saturday 2nd March from 10-12. This event is always a good source of cakes, Fairtrade goods (Easter Eggs?) and other items. Do please support this if you can and make it known to others

Trinity fund raising: QUIZ SHEETS continue to be on sale in aid of the Buildings Fund. Completed sheets on Musical Instruments to be handed back by 3rd March. Look out for a different sheet shortly. In the same cause, Ann Hunter is offering for sale her BOOK about her ancestry; a helpful review of this fascinating book appears in the Forum.

Lynda Moore has tickets for sale (£6) for the QUIZ NIGHT on 23rd March here at Trinity. Do have a word with her before they all sell out. See posters around the building.

The Aquarius Singers will be welcomed at Trinity for their SPRING CONCERT on 17th March at 3p.m. Val Matthews has tickets for sale now (£10) or on the door.
