

Trinity Newsletter 8th to 12th January

On Sunday the 12th January at 10a.m. we will hold our annual Covenant Service led by our Minister Rev. Canon Jason Vinyard, with Holy Communion. ( benevolent offering for MHA [The Martins] ). On 19th Jan at 10a.m. the preacher is Rev.Vaughan Tong.

A New Year Fair to replace the postponed Christmas Fair will be held at The Martins on 11th January at 10.30, do please try and support in any way you can: all will be made very welcome and, as Rev. Val Spencer says, "all the usual attractions will be available". For newcomers to the town - The Martins MHA residential home is at the back of the Abbey Gardens in The Vinefields, IP33 1YA, though street parking is limited and is best at Ram Meadow car park and walk a few minutes from there.

Reminders of helpful provisions in Trinity's building: please use the pigeonholes on the landing for messages between users of the building; look now and again to see if there is anything there for you. There is an induction loop in the sanctuary for hearing aid users - just switch your aid over via its T switch. Large print hymn books are also available at the door to the sanctuary: just ask. If there is any other way in which we can help you to enjoy your time better in the building, speak to one of the church stewards.

If you do not already contribute financially and would like to do so there are various methods available to you - again a church steward should be able to supply information.

The Week of Prayer for Christian Unity this year begins on 19th January and as always we will take part with other congregations in "Churches Together in Bury St. Edmunds" . In the succeeding week, Trinity will host a meeting on Wednesday 22nd at lunchtime. (See Calendar below). Similar lunchtime meetings will take place at other churches in the town throughout the week; David Wakeford has details.

From Andrew Walker: The Trinity website (www.trinitymethodistchurch.org.uk) has been on holiday for a while because of web hosting problems. It is now available again complete with service details and recordings of recent sermons.
