

Trinity Newsletter 29th January - 2nd February 2025

On Sunday the 2nd February at 10a.m the preacher will be the Rev. Helen Hollands, Chair of the East Anglia District. Please note that our service on that day will NOT be a Local Arrangement. On the 9th February at 10a.m. the worship will include Holy Communion and will be led by Rev. Canon Jason Vinyard. The benevolent offering on that day will be for "Mission in Britain".

The Trinity website (www.trinitymethodistchurch.org.uk) is now available again complete with service details and much more information about this church, the circuit and the District.

From Sue Robinson: Despite the gloomy wintry days, we've had some good attendance at our weekly Wednesday coffee morning raising nearly £1000 in the last 4 months. If you fancy a bit of company, a warm welcome and some delicious coffee and home baked items then make sure you make a visit to us a regular part of the week, along with many other regulars. We enjoy the presence of the allotment group who are delighted to have the opportunity to maintain contact during the winter months. They are very appreciative of what we offer them and we benefit from their custom. Our bric a brac stall is a good source of revenue so we welcome donations of good quality items and books. A big thank you to all the volunteers who provide this service each week and to our customers who make it worthwhile.

Another reminder that Chris has a video from Maurice Lake in the Falklands of the Christmas Tree Festival held at their Seamen's Mission. Maurice says it is reminiscent of similar festivals held at Trinity in earlier times. If you would like to watch this video please contact Chris Spencer.

Two early dates for your diary : Sunday March 23rd following morning worship: Annual Church Meeting to which all members of the congregation are invited. Saturday 5th April at 3p.m. Concert at Trinity by the Aquarius Choir, which will include the Faure Requiem.

PLEASE NOTE - the next edition of this Newsletter will cover 2 weeks, i.e. 5th - 16th February which will be published on Wednesday 5th Feb. We would be grateful if contributors could think ahead if they have anything for the calendar.
