

Trinity Newsletter 12th to 16th March 2025

On Sunday 16th March at 10a.m, our worship will be led by Rev Val Spencer.

On 23rd March at 10a.m. our service will be led by our minister Rev. Canon Jason Vinyard and will be followed, after a brief break, by the Annual Church Meeting to which all members of the congregation are invited. This is the annual opportunity for everyone to learn about all aspects of the work and worship of this church and to consider where the future may lead us. Please come if you can, to listen and consider and share.

On Sunday mornings the upper lounge is now being made available as a creche for the use of any family who would like to make use of it - a rota of helpers is in place; plans are still afoot to improve this facility, so that we may welcome any family who comes in to our worship on Sundays. Thank you to the volunteer helpers.

On Saturday 15th March from 10-12 (at Trinity) there will be a Fairtrade coffee morning; your support will be appreciated and if you can make the event known to others that would also be helpful. There will be lots of cakes, and other stalls.

MUSIC FOR THE SEASON: On Saturday 5th April at 3p.m. there will be a Concert at Trinity by the talented Aquarius Choir. Full details are on posters around the building: a feature of the concert is Faure's Requiem. Tickets £12 available at the door or at Balaam's Music shop. There will be refreshments and a raffle.

On Monday 14th April, 7.30, at Bradfield Methodist Church, there will be a concert of music for Holy Week by The Mead Singers, another talented choir.

The Martins MHA residential Home, Some of the residents visited the Wednesday Trinity Coffee Morning recently and plan to make this a monthly occurrence in future. They also hope to join us in worship on Easter Sunday. The hiring of a minibus for the journey here is financed mainly from the Residents Amenities Fund. If you would like to support that Fund you can contact its treasurer Roger Drew roger.drew2@btinternet.com.
