

Trinity Newsletter 30th April to 4th May 2025

On 4th May at 10a.m. our preacher will be the Rev. Rita Carr, for a welcome return visit from the other side of our Circuit. On 11th May, as Christian Aid Week begins, our worship will be led by our own minister Rev. Canon Jason Vinyard. There will be a retiring collection that day (and the 18th May) for Christian Aid. when the use of envelopes will help us recover money via Gift Aid.

Rev. Jason conducted the funeral service for Michael Veale at Trinity on 23rd April. Sylvia has sent the following message:

“Sylvia and family would like to thank everyone for the kind messages of sympathy following Michael’s death. Your love and support has been a great comfort to us”

Do please note in your diary/calendar the events for Christian Aid Week which begins on 11th May. There are two coffee mornings - on 10th & 17th May at different venues; details in the calendar below. On Thursday 13th May at 7.30p.m. the Rev. R. Stainer (World Development Advisor to the Diocese) will be speaking at Trinity about Christian Aid work.

You may see a poster in the building about the GREEN PASTURES CHRISTIAN BOOKSHOP in Dereham.. Clare tells us that once a month they have a pop-up shop at St.Mary’s Church, in Bury St. Edmunds, which sells books, bibles, cards etc. The next visit from the shop will be 7th May; if you are in town for Trinity Coffee Shop that day then you may like to pop up the road to visit this shop. If you do that perhaps you would care to report back to Trinity via this Newsletter on how you found it .
